(Special to The Evening World.)
PITTSBURG, Pa., June 21.—Manager Hanlon has heard from one of his players, Phil Lewis, the big short stop, wired him from Harrisburg to pay no attention to reports on the rounds. No doubt the young man means Hanlon will not have to apologize to him. Though Lewis, according to Hanlon, has given the veteran record breaker trouble, the Brooklyn chief will take the boy back.

There was joy in the Brooklyn camp today. The team hopes to win again here. Clymer left to-day for a summer resort. Pittsburgh rosters roared at the Tuesday for indifference. It was possibly the first time in years that Clarke has been scored by patrons for such a shortcoming.

First Inning.

Dobbs' grounder got away from Wagner. Hall tried to sacrifice, but forced Dobbs. Phil Lewis, the big short stop, threw Wagner's sacrifice. Clarke got a base on balls. Beaumont bunted, but Babb's excellent play stopped him at third. Clancy, who was supposed to be a sacrifice, was caught by McIntyre. Wagner fanned out. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Clancy targeted first ahead of Gessler. Babb called to beat Phil Lewis's fast start. Malay was thrown out. Leach, who was supposed to be a sacrifice, was caught by McIntyre. Wagner fanned out. ONE RUN.

Third Inning.

Phil Lewis' third inning was made on a bunt. Bergen got a bunt single. Pettit, who was supposed to be a sacrifice, was caught by McIntyre. Wagner fanned out. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Gessler landed a safety back of Phil. Pettit, who was supposed to be a sacrifice, was caught by McIntyre. Wagner fanned out. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Babb got a complimentary. Bergen hit safe to right. McIntyre sacrificed. Clancy, who was supposed to be a sacrifice, was caught by McIntyre. Wagner fanned out. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Gessler landed a safety back of Phil. Pettit, who was supposed to be a sacrifice, was caught by McIntyre. Wagner fanned out. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Bergen stopped Leach to first. McIntyre popped to catcher. Dobbs hit safe to right. Clancy, who was supposed to be a sacrifice, was caught by McIntyre. Wagner fanned out. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Lumley struck out. Gessler hit by pitched ball. Babb singled. Malay forced Gessler. Wagner fanned out. NO RUNS.

Giants Bat Out Four Runs in First Inning and Force Cincinnati Nine to Retire —McGraw Is to Force Another Issue.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CINCINNATI, O., June 21.—Manager McGraw has just discovered that the reason "Dumfries" Taylor was ordered off the coaching lines in yesterday's game was because of an edict issued by President Pulliam prohibiting the mute from attempting to do any coaching. McGraw is rather vexed at this order and will demand of Mr. Pulliam that the ban be removed from Taylor.

BATTING ORDER.

New York. Brown, cf. McGraw, 1b. Davis, 3b. Gilbert, 2b. Bowerman, c. Matheison, p.
Cincinnati. Hughes, 1b. Barry, 1b. Kelley, cf. Seymour, cf. Corcoran, ss. Odwell, 2b. Bridwell, 3b. Schiel, c. Walker, p. Lopez, c. O'Day.

"There are times when Taylor is much more valuable on the lines than a man that can talk," said McGraw. "And for that reason it is placing a handicap on us and treating the player unfairly to prevent him from getting out there. I expect to make this thing an issue, for there is no reason whatever why Taylor should not be allowed to coach."

McGraw forwarded his letter of inquiry to President Pulliam today. Pitcher Leon Ames left for New York after the game last night. His wife is in New York and he will take a few days' rest before taking up the work on the field again on Saturday.
